The Department of Animal Industry is eighteen months old. During the first third of its existence, while it was being adjusted to the new conditions and enlarged responsibilities, its work was to a considerable degree tentative and experimental. But the period covered by this report marks a full year of systematized activity under rules suggested by experience and tested in the crucible of practice. It has been a year of distinct achievement and of progress, and I am very proud of what has been and is being accomplished. I recognize and...
