Excerpt: . his service has been on New Jersey and Lehigh Division, his record as Dean of the Official Corps, his forceful yet amiable personality, his intense loyalty and unimpeachable integrity have gained for him a host of warm friends in the company service, as well as elsewhere, all of whom join in the fervent wish that he may live long to enjoy his wellearned release from arduous duty which this present position in an advisory capacity will permit of. Mr. (ieorge W. Hay, who succeeds Mr. Xonnemacher as General Baggage Agent, and who also has been appointed District Passenger Agent, though comparatively a young man, has a record of some twenty years of raliroad service on one of the great trunk lines, and therefore brings to his new position long experience as well as executive ability of a high order. He will doubtless prove a...
