Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Guide to Films in Human Relations Nearly two hundred films which may be used to interpret more completely the multiple ideas inherent in the term human relations, are included in this guide. Reference to the classified index reveals that the scope of the bibliography ranges from Nationality, Races And Religious Groups to International Relations, with approximately 40 additional subject categories. Intergroup, interpersonal and intercultural concepts that are expressed through the medium of the film represent the boundaries of choice for titles selected in this Guide To Films In Human Relations. The guide is marked by several distinct features. 1. Evaluation: - Each film has been screened by one or more representative committees, and the comments of the previewing panels are given. Consequently, inclusion in the list does not automatically mean recommendation. The films evaluated are those which are known to be utilized by groups interested in human relations, and are available for either purchase, rental, or free loan. Like all materials of communication, they vary in quality. Some indication of this variance is recorded in the paragraph headed Comment which follows each film s summary of content. 2. Content Summary: - Enough synoptic information to give the potential user the complete story of the film has been the goal of the compiler of the guide. Since the production of this work has been carried on in many centers, the film s summary may vary in completeness, but, in general, the annotation is more detailed than in many other publications in this area. 3. Cooperative Planning: - Although the final editorial work has necessarily been in the hands of one individual, the direction and execution of...
