Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In response to a congressional request, GAO provided statistical information on the Food Stamp, Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), and Medicaid Programs which described: program growth by State, differences in benefit levels among the States, degree of correlation between program growth and unemployment, administrative structure of each program, the extent to which recipients of the Food Stamp Program receive benefits from the AFDC and Medicaid Programs, and projections for future program growth. The proposed New Federalism Program would transfer the responsibility for the Food Stamp and AFDC Programs to the States and, in return, the Federal Government would assume all costs of the Medicaid Program. However, this proposed transfer may be deferred or dropped altogether. All three programs have experienced a large dollar growth over the past years. The number of Food Stamp Program participants has increased, but the increase has tended to level out over the last 2 years. The number of Medicaid and AFDC Program participants has remained relatively stable over the period. The Omnibus Budget and Reconciliation Act will play a major role...
