On behalf of the Directors an Address of Welcome was presented to His Excellency by Mr. Holden, to which he made the following reply: --Mr. President, Ladles, and Gentlemen, --In the first place I must congratulate you und those who are interested in this most important Establishment upon the acquisition of a Mansion and of an Estate so admirably adapted to the purposes to which they are about to be devoted. It is needless for me to repeat to you how deep an interest both I and Lady Dufferin take in everything connected with the Education of the youth of this Country. My views in regard to education are so sufficiently known that it is unnecessary for me to state them on the present...
