Sir, I have the honour to communicate to you the following extract from a letter I have received from Sir James Graham, with reference to the late disturbances in the neighbourhood of Dudley, and the services performed on that occasion by the Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry under your command. I can not allow the opportunity to pass without expressing through your Lordship my thanks to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the Queen's Own Worcestershire Corps of Yeomanry Cavalry, for the zeal and alacrity which they displayed when their services were required in aid of the civil power 842 for the preservation of the public peace. I beg to add an expression on my own part of my very strong sense of the admirable behaviour in all respects of the Corps, which I had the pleasure of witnessing on the late occasion, and I wish more particularly to express my cordial thanks to yourself and to the officers in general for your readiness and zeal in cooperating with the civil authorities in the most efficient manner when your services were required. (Signed) Lyttelton. R. H. Clive, Lieut.-Colonel Commandant. On the 30th of July, the regiment was again called out in aid of the civil power to Dudley, Oldbury, Stourbridge, and...
