I love my husband; and that love is alone in my life, and it is there for evermore. She spoke rapidly, and as she spoke she kept always moving backwards, till she now leant against the further wall of the room. The wan face was wet with tears, but the eyes were flashing, and the voice had vibrations in it, of anger, as well as of pain. Ladislas drew a step nearer. Madman! she said, and thrust out a hand as if to hold him off. He stood, and looked at her; looked, as the hungry in this world look at bread, and as the lost in the next world, will look at the light that streams from the gates of Paradise. He then...
