Excerpt: . . . his associates was the artist Peter Grosh, to whom he gave hints as to the mixing of colors. In his capacity as tourist he visited England, and later on, as an Oriental Tourist, he visited the Holy Land. By this time his religious fervor had unbalanced his mind, and when within a few days journey of Jerusalem he was found by a band of roving Bedouins on the desert. , weary and footsore, suffering from fever. The Arabs soon noticed that Landis was of unsound mind, and, having a religious reverence for such unfortunate children of Allah, they carried him to Alexandria, from which point the American Consul returned him to the United States. Despite the winning not only of his lottery prize, but of his triumph over Du Solle and Geo. R. Graham in his ii. fa. suit for 10, 000, for libels, in 1845, he was very poor in the latter days of his erratic life. It is said by some that the world is willing to accept you at your own valuation of yourself. Considering himself an artist of indubitable inspiration, by consequence of inspired poems and paintings, he, nevertheless, was refused money and patronage and compelled often to live on dry bread and water. At one time he braided straw hats for a living in a smith shop he occupied in the vicinity of Chambersburg, and came near being burned to death by the straw catching fire while he was...
