Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Children s Library The Cleveland Public Library furnishes to the Cleveland Public Schools, through the stations in the public school buildings and through the grade teachers, many thousands of books yearly. In any building where there is no library station, any teacher is at liberty to select fifty books suitable for use in her grade, which will be sent to her school-room by the library and called for at the end of the year. The collection of children s books here listed is meant to represent eight such sets of books, one for each of the elementary grades. The number in each set has not been held strictly to fifty books, the first grade, for instance, containing but twenty-five and the eighth grade more than eighty. In the first and second grades it is desirable to duplicate suitable and attractive books rather than to seek variety at the expense of simplicity and suitability; and in the eighth grade it has seemed wise to give some indispensable handbooks as well as books of pure literature; moreover the interests and the ability of eighth grade, class in different sections re very diverse, and this has been considered in the widely varying degrees of difficulty of the subject matter and the many lines of interest appealed to. Throughout the eight grades the idea of progression, not merely general, but specific has been had in mind; for instance, the fourth grade pupil will read the complete Stevenson s Child s Garden of Verses, with the beautiful Chas. Robinson illustrations in black and white, much more readily if he has had previously the selections from the same in the...
