Jeff Bingaman presiding. Present: Senator Bingaman. Opening Statement of Senator Bingaman Senator Bingaman. Why don t we get started with the hearing. Let me, first of all, say I appreciate we have got the best court reporter in the State, Betty Lanphere, helping us today. That is a great consolation to us, and we appreciate it very much. This is a hearing preparing American Indians for the 21st Century. This is to focus some attention on preparing American Indians for the 21st Century, particularly as it relates to the Goals 2000 legislation that is pending in the Congress, S. 1150. This is the legislation the President has proposed and the Secretary of Education is to try to begin to put in place the goals for education in this country and put in place content and performance standards for our schools. Let me begin by thanking Joe Abeyta and the school here, the Santa Fe Indian School for graciously hosting this hearing. They have been gracious hosts for many events that I have done in the time I have been in the Senate, and this is a superb example of the quality education that is being provided to some of our Indian students around the country, and we hope more and...
