Science. 130 pages. cloth, gilt top, $1.50. it is always at pleasure to read the utterances of the author of this book when religion and moral: are under consideration. He is so frank in stating his own views and so utterly free from harshness or uncharitableness in stating his opposition to the views of others, as to be able to carry any reader along without personal irritation. We are attracted by the strong moral and spiritual tone in the book. and find a reverence and devotion here for things of the spirit which do not exist in some of our so-called religious writers. It will stir many souls to higher life. --Public Opinion. OTHER PUBLICATIONS. THE...
